AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

SIXTY (60) MONTHS. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of four (4) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payments;
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one (1) drug test within fifteen (15) days of release from imprisonment and at least two (2) periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight (8) tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;

USA vs. MATHEWS, DewayneDocket No.: CR 08-570-CAS

7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
8. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a Crips gang member or persons associated with the Crips gang, with the exception of his family members. He may not knowingly wear, display, use or possess any Crips gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing, which evidences affiliation with the Crips gang, and may not knowingly display any Crips signs or gestures; and,
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Crips gang meet and/or assemble.

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that such sanction would place an undue burden on defendant's dependents.

The Court recommended that the defendant participate in the 500-hour drug treatment program and to be housed in a Southern California Bureau of Prisons facility.

The Court granted the government's oral motion to dismiss Count 2 of the Indictment.

The Court advised the defendant of his right to appeal this judgment.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
